CHINESE PIRATES ACTIVE

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 28.—Recent advices per steamer Tacoma state: Pirates recently made a raid upon the silk district of Sai-chiu, and the people there are agitating the substitution of British for Chinese authority. The condition of the two Kwang provinces has now for several years been most disorderly, and a general feeling of insecurity, both of life and property, has for long been felt by that portion of the population having anything to lose. Piracies on the waterways, armed robberies in the country, and raids by banditti even in the large towns, have now become constant, and criminals, waxing bolder with past successes, now carry on their operations under the very noses of the chief officials. The extension by the pirates of the sphere of their operations to vessels on the West river flying foreign flags is likely, however, to bring the condition of the provinces prominently before the foreign powers.
